Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Godfrey Okoro Godfrey joined the Catholic Church as a young school boy, and grew up to love the doctrines, rituals and practices of the church. He had wished to become a priest. As this became unattainable, he enjoyed various roles in the church. First as a mass servant, and finally as a Vice President of the Executive and Pastoral Councils of his last Catholic Community. He desired to remain a devoted Catholic. The zeal with which he went about his membership of the Catholic Church influenced his joining a group within the church, which took delight in reading the Bible. Initially, he read the Bible to improve his faith and commitment to the Catholic Church. Latter, he began to discover contradictions between what the Catholic Church believes, teaches and practices, and what the Bible stipulates. The contradictions led to curiosity. His curiosity led him to read the Bible daily, to further ascertain the truth. His quest for the truth increased with each new revelation in the course of his study. The result of his daily devotion to reading the Bible was that he began to love God and fear His judgment more than stick to the doctrines of the Catholic Church. Many of these doctrines he was convinced could not be substantiated from the Bible. THE PROBLEMS WITH THE GREATEST CHURCH AND CHURCHES is a book in reaction to the transformation of the church from what is right to what is wrong. The author has bared his mind on many issues. I perceive that his inner feelings is that of frustration. Frustration that the sanctity of the church has been compromised by people who vehemently project...
