That the conditions of said place called Laneville have not changed and there is no more necessity at this time for requiring said depot to be opened than there was in 1908, when the application aforesaid was heard and denied by this Board. Wherefore, this respondent asks that the complaint be dismissed. A copy of such answer was forwarded, with the following letter: With further reference to your complaint asking for the opening of depot at Laneville, we enclose you herewith copy of the answer of the respondent company for your information. Kindly note the statement of the respondent that there is another depot located within two or three miles of the station of Laneville, that there are no...
