Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Standards in English a Course of Study in Oral and Written Composition for Elementary Schools The Course of Study herewith submitted is the outcome of an investigation of the language problem in Cambridge, Massachusetts, which was carried on for a space of two years, 1913-1915, under the direction of the writer, who during that period served as Assistant Superintendent of Schools in the city named. It would seem to be important at this time to state the purposes, methods, and results of that investigation, in order that those who think it worth while to use this course may be able properly to do so. Hence the following: In January and February, 1913, a series of conferences on English in the Cambridge public schools brought out the following points: 1. That the English work in the schools was unsatisfactory. (Proposition tentatively accepted.) 2. That there was considerable haziness of opinion as to just exactly wherein it was unsatisfactory. (Examination needed.) 3. That there was also considerable haziness of opinion as to just exactly why it was...
