Thorough guideline! Its this type of good read. It is really simplistic but shocks from the 50 percent from the publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Pamphlets, Broadsides, Clippings, and Other Miscellaneous Matter Sir. - In accordance with the provisions of chapter 236 of the Laws of 1892, the board of general managers of the exhibit of the State of New York, at the Worlds Columbian Exposition, met and organized at the capitol, in the city of Albany, on the 19th of April, 1892. The commissioners appointed, under the terms of the same act, from each judicial district to the State, met in conference with the board of general managers at Albany, on April twenty-eighth, and their mode of organization and sphere of action were duly prescribed. Pursuant to invitation, Hon. George P. Davis, director-general of the Worlds Columbian Exposition, accompanied by F. J. V. Skiff, the chief of the department of mines and mining, attended the meeting. After a full and free exchange of views between these officers of the Exposition and the State managers and commissioners, it was unanimously resolved, that, for the information of those charged with providing for the representation of the State at the Worlds Fair, a personal study should be made at Chicago of the methods, requirements, facilities and plans of the Exposition. Representatives from the board of general managers and from each of the judicial districts, together with the chief executive officer and secretary of the board of general managers, accordingly met in Chicago on the 11th of May, 1892, and, after visiting the Exposition grounds, conferred with the heads of the various departments. Stenographic notes were taken of these conferences, and the result was a body of detailed information, more comprehensive and exact than had been compiled by any other State board.
