By Victoria University of Manche Education

Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Demonstration Schools Record, Being Contributions to the Study of Education, Vol. 1 It is intended to issue, at convenient intervals, successive numbers of a publication such as is here presented in order to acquaint subscribers and others interested in the study of Education, with the work of these two Demonstration Schools and with the nature of the investigations which centre round them. In this first number our chief concern is to show the variety of ways in which a Demonstration School can supply the needs of a University Department of Education, as concerned, firstly, with students preparing for their career as teachers, secondly, with lecturers and demonstrators, engaged, as in other University Departments, both in supervising students and in undertaking research into educational problems. This analogy with other University Departments is always present to our minds when planning the machinery by which a Demonstration School is controlled. Students of to-day, in contrast to fifty years ago, are being everywhere supplied with hospitals, laboratories, apparatus, libraries, field excursions to enable them to realise the full...
