Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Transactions of the American Institute: Of the City of New-York, for the Year 1854 The active circle of the Institute having during the past year, been somewhat circumscribed by the suspension of its annual fair, the subjects of this report may be comprised within a brief space. It will be proper to state here succinctly the causes which led to an interregnum in our annual fairs. This is the more necessary, because the subject is not in some quarters, referred to its proper cause. There are some who suppose that the American Institute suspended its annual fair because of the Crystal Palace. This is a great mistake. If the Institute would not forego its annual fair when the Crystal Palace was in the noon tide of its glory, it is not to be supposed that it would do so when the Crystal Palace had lost all the prestige which greeted its opening. To do away any misapprehension which may still exist on this subject, it may be well to state the reasons which governed the Institute...
