There are times when a consignment is sent forward and terms are F. O. B. Line of Road. In any such instance the freight bill should be marked accordingly and the place given as the same from which the shipment originated, in order that the comptrollers office may know just how to handle the freight bill. In order that the local stores keepers report of freight bills charged to General Stores account during a certain month may correspond with the records in the comptrollers office, the comptroller should arrange to send him a list on the first day of each month, showing the numbers on freight bills charged to General Stores account during the previous month. The stores keeper should keep a record of all freight bills passed, and thus it will not be difficult for him to ascertain the total amount of freight bills to be taken into his General Stores account each month. When to Charge Transportation, Etc. , to General Stores Bills covering freight charges, cartage, etc. , and pay-roll charges covering any loading, inspecting, and handling of materials and supplies for general stores, should be charged to General Stores provided the amount is sufficient to increase the unit price of the material by at least one cent. When the amount is not sufficient to increase the unit price by one cent, the bills and pay-roll charges should be charged to those operating expense accounts which are most...
