Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Modern Stewardship Sermons There is a wealth of material in the stewardship sermons just now being preached throughout the church which ought to be preserved for future use, as a permanent record of the church-wide Centenary Stewardship Campaign. This is the sentence which came to the Stewardship executive secretary with enough data to carry conviction; hence this volume of sermons. Concerning the sermons themselves, it should be said that they have been selected from a wide range of preachers in all parts of the country. They appear as first presented, except that in most instances, the Editorial Committee has been obliged to make abridgments in order to present a larger number of the manuscripts. We wish to express our appreciation for the service rendered by the ministers whose names here appear and to those whose manuscripts either arrived too late for publication or presented an approach to the theme similar to that of some sermon previously edited. Much credit is due Mr. Leon Wood, of the Editorial Committee, for his painstaking care in preparing the manuscripts for the printer. In general, the book reveals the thoroughness with which the stewardship message is being presented throughout Methodism. Legalism seems to be swallowed up in loving loyalty to the Kingdom, and the general tone seems to be a yearning for the spread of gospel holiness, and for a genuine revival of evangelism throughout the church.
