

Korean-American Voices of Youth in New Jersey

By -

The Hermit Kingdom Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Korean-American teenagers from New Jersey write about their own experiences and reflections in the year 2007. This book, containing 9 essays by Korean-American youths from Junior and Senior High Schools in New Jersey, gives an excellent picture of the hopes and fears of Korean-American youth throughout the United States of America. Korean-American teenage experience is one of being caught between a rock and a hard place. There is the Korean culture that their parents continue to cherish and develop both culturally and socially within the American context and there is the American culture they are exposed in their schools and from MTV and mass media. What to do? How to think? What way to go? This book is a look into honest feelings and struggles of Korean-American teenagers from New Jersey. Esther Hah, the Editor, is a senior from Northern Valley Regional High School-Danvers, located in Bergen County, New Jersey. She is the president of the Fountain and Rock Church Youth Group in Emerson, New Jersey, a Korean-American church where her father is the Senior...
