A Novel Across the Ocean

By Mrs Justina Goldberg

Justina Goldberg, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This is a story about a young girl's flight to the West. How she struggled was beyond imagination. Harsh weather conditions, the snow and ice pellet prevent her from doing anything, but her ambitious nature and determination found friends and soon she landed a job in the brokerage industry. She was twenty five years old, naive, and didn't know what to expect of her life, but work. There was no need to think of doing it any other way. People she met in high places, from a gambler to con artist to bars and nightclubs, to heartaches and joy. It was a weekend of rendezvous. Until the time she met the German immigrant, then everything changed. From her mother's eyes, she was only ten years old, but being around with her parents back to the town where she grew up, can stir up implicit memories that automatically trigger her feelings of the past. Her mother's grip on her, prompted her to be defensive and rebellious, but no matter how she felt, memories of...
