Tina leaned in close and studied all the fine details, with her nose almost buried in the book. She moved her finger across the page and toward a picture of a giant wave rolling onto the shore. The wave looked as real as any she had ever seen, if she were standing on a beach by the sea. Most unusual. She paralleled her face with the book and drew in even closer. Ah! she gasped as water splashed onto her face. Blah. She stuck out her tongue and flew backward onto the chair, causing the chair to teeter on the back two legs. She threw her weight forward to catch her balance. As the chair slammed back onto the floor, Tina's head went forward and into the book. Ah! she gurgled after swallowing a mouthful of salt water. Blah! Blah! she spit, quickly rubbing her tongue with the back of her hand. Yuk! Leaning further back from the table, Tina gazed down at the book wide eyed. The picture on the page came alive as water splashed...
