Mr. Pattison entered on his duties on the 1st of January, 1878, and recognizing the fact that he had been elected to reform the office and its methods, he speedily set about his work with a determination to honestly administer affairs. He found the credit of the city impaired, its paper at a discount in the money market, but by adopting a funding plan order was brought out of chaos; and such was the great appreciation of his services by the people that at the expiration of his three-years term he was re-elected by a majority of 13,593 over his contestant, one of the most esteemed citizens and successful merchants of Philadelphia. This was not a triumph of party, but one due to the personal and...
