Anyone who has done childrens sermons will sooner or later hear from someone that I learn more from the childrens sermon than I do from the real sermon. And indeed, the truths of scripture are so simple that even a child can understand them. So its no accident that childrens sermons have become a central part of the worship service in many churches. Brett Blair and Tim Carpenter offer a years worth of object lessons that engage children and impart profound lessons for all ages. Two sermons are provided for each Sunday in Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary, one based on the Second Lesson and one based on the Gospel. The messages are structured in two parts: the lesson uses an object to draw out active responses from children, then the application connects that object to the assigned scripture reading. Each message includes a clear statement of its exegetical aim. Bright, innovative, perceptive, creative, grace-filled Brett Blair and Tim Carpenter are all of those and much, much more, and that is reflected beautifully in their new book Childrens Sermons A To Z. James W. Moore Pastor, St. Lukes United Methodist Church Houston, Texas Brett Blair is associate pastor of Asbury United Methodist Church in Memphis, Tennessee. He holds the M. Div. degree from Yale University Divinity School and is a cum laude graduate of Oral Roberts University with B. A. and M. A. degrees in New Testament Literature.
